What are some examples of expectations that we have in the church? What are your expectations? (good worship, feel good message, fresh donuts)

What is the typical way we respond when those expectations aren't met?

Jesus talked to His disciples about being slaves and servants. What would the church look like if we all took that posture? What would this small group look like?

What are some things you can do this week to be a servant?

Read 1 Corinthians 4:1-7. What are some things that jump out at you?

In that text, whose opinion matters most?

What are some ways we can remind ourselves that we are just day-laborers?
