Small Group Questions

What are some areas in your life that you can be a little more "perfect" (complete, mature)

Have you ever tried to show your righteousness to someone and it had the opposite effect?

We have been talking about a personal relationship with God. What are some practical ways we can remind ourselves of this?

Do you ever find yourself being a hypocrite? Have you ever fooled yourself?

What are some things we can do this week that no one needs to know about in order to draw us closer in our relationship to God?
